THE STATE OF ALABAMA.) Calhoun County. Court of Probate for said county, April 28,

T this term of the court came Wm. M, A T this term of the court came wan a, Hughes, Administrator of Langford Hughes deceased, and filed in court his petition in writing, representing among other things, that his intestite died seized and posseries and the following described Lands, lying and being s'mate in said county, to-wit: Beginning at the creek on the Township line. bence to the dividing line in section thirtyour, thence north, to the north-cast corner of the field, thence west to the creek including the field fence, thence meandering the creek to the beginning corner on the township line, being part and parcel of section 34. thirty-four, township 15, fifteen of range 9, nine, containing seventy acres, more or less Said Administrator further represents, that said Land cannot be equally, fairly and beneficially divided among the heirs of said Estate, without a sale of the same; that said estate is in debt, and that it is therefore necessary and is to the interest of said estate that said Land be sold for distribution, and for the payment of debts, &e.; and be therefore asks an order of court authorizing him to sell the same for purposes above mentioned.

It is therefore ordered by the coart, that the 10th day of June, 1868 be set for the hearing of said petition, and that notice thereof be given by publication in the Jackis sonville Republican, a weekly newspaper published in said county, for three successive weeks prior to said day, as a notice to the non-resident heirs and all other persons concerned, to be and appear at a special Term of said court to be holden at the court house of said courty on said 10th day of June, 1868, and defend against said petition if

The King of the bondholders Flies the Track - Scheme of the Reconstruction Committee - The Chase Platform-The President and the New York Convention.

Special to the Louisville Journal.

Washington, June 22, 1868.-There is trouble in the radical camp. Jay Cooke has come down on the Grant and Co.fax people, and refuses to subscribe. This I know to be true, and announce definitely. Grant's man, Washburne, is in New York, trying to raise money. Jay Cooke's apostacy is attributed to the fact that he believes Grant unseund on the bond issue. It is also laid to the account of Mr. Chase Whatever its origin it is a fact, and the radical leaders are both incensed and aghast.

"Data," of the Balcimore Sun, (who is a Private Secretary of the President.) announces that the President is ready to accept McCulloch's resignation and to appoint Groesbeck as his successor.

The Reconstruction Committeewhich has been organized into a campaign club for Grant and Colfax -- are to report a bill to exclude 25,000 white freemen of Virginia, already registered, from the exercises of the ballot Otherwise the Old Dominion is lost to the radicals. The thing is to be done at the request of the local faction, which has despaired of success by legitimate means.

Gen. Meade is now in Washington. He is very silent about the late outrages. The conservatives suggest Alaska.

Judge Unase denies the paternity of the platform recently attributed to him, in which the withdrawal of troops from the South and the submission of negro suffrage to State are leading features.

Special to the Louisville Courier. Washington, June 22 .- The crowning act of infamy of the Congress is the admission of McKee to-day. Trimide and Beek, of Kentucky, and Judge l'oland, of Vermont (radical,) made strong speeches against it, but McKee had done the radicals tervice and they paid him his price, and this in the face of their own report again t him in A. M; leave Gadsden every Sunday at March. Thad S evens, Banks, Polan I. and all respectable radicals voted against McKee Seculations are rife about the nominations of the New York Convention Mr. Johnson is in the field and his friends are working vigorous'y. He said to a friend to-day that he would be gratified if the South should think proper to compliment him with their vote on the ballot. Hendricks seems forming up rapidly and Judge Field, of California, and Judge Stanbery's names are also mentioned in connection with the nomination

The President's friends continue in their efforts to drive McCulloch from the Cabinet. Johnson desire his resignation, and if he does not tender it there wilbe a removal or suspension. The President is also said to have desired the resignation of Seward.

The Pon sy'ven'a delegates meet at Philadelphia on the 24 of July, and will decide on their course in the convention.

Judge Rassell, of New York, is here. a d says Seymour will be elected President of the convention by acclamation. He thinks the Chase movement in that city will expend itself by its own fury, and that Hancock will be the nominee of the convention.

The discharge of Surrat from the ins dictment for murder, and his release on bail by Judge Wiley, is condemned by no one but his radical associates on the bench. Wiley pronounced Surratt's indictment, of giving aid and comfort to the enemy.

THE GLAG. - Passing by the negro Methodist Church a few nigths ago, we saw a crowded honse, and the pu'pit draped with the star-spangled banner, in honor, no doubt, of the advent of Appletoddy, Keller, Josh Morse, and all the other murderers, perjurers, and back mailers. Pity that the United States flag in the South is misused as a cloak for negro babboonery and white villainy! - Mont. Mail.

Of the Chase movement the World speaks as foollows: "If it could be ends equally important and more attainable, the nomination of Chief Justice Chase would not be so entirely beyond the limits of a supposable event as

A DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

Fatal Affair Between an Ex-Confed. rate Officer and a Freedmen's Bu-reau Agent. THE DANGER OF REVIVING WAR ANI-MOSITIES.

From the Washington Banner We learn from Detective Barmore, who retailed from Russelville, Kenucky, yesterday, that a shocking tragedy occurred at that place yesterday morning, at seven o'clock, under the following circumstances:

It appears that at the close of the war Captain Wm. McCarty, of the Confederate Army, returned home, and having no money with which to purchase cirizens' clothing continued to wear his uniform. This seems to have been exceedingly distasteful to a Major N. C. Lawrence, then of the Federal Army and an officer of the Freedmen's Bureau at Russelville. The latter, accompanied by a guard of two or three soldiers at that time, went to McCarty, took foreible possession of his gray coat and peremptorily commanded him to keep his d-d mouth shut. McCarty reported the action of Lawrence to the Post Command int, who rebuked Lawrence for having gone outside of his duty, and ordered him to return the cost. From this sprang ill feelings which resuited last Tuesday in the death of Lawrence and in McCarty receiving a mortal wound at the hand of his enemy.

It appears that hawrence went to the store where McCarty was employed as clerk, and abused him on account of his former "rebel" proclivities McCarty controlled his temper, told Lawrence that he wanted nothing to do with him, and requested him to leave the store .-As soon as Lawrence had stepped outside the door he turned and fired at Me-Carty who was still inside, inflicting a mortal wound in the part of the body where he had been woulded during the war. No: withstanding McCarty's wound he rushed upon Lawrance and finally succeeded in getting his revolver out hand Lawrence then endeavored to make a hasty retreat, but was killed before he had gone any distance, having been shot three times in the body with same revolver with which he intended to kirl McCarty. The latter was soon after arrested by the City Marshall, but being in a very critical condition, was taken to a house a short distance away from the fatal scene.

Captain McCleary, a lieutenant and thirty men of the United States regulars, went Russelville on the first train and stationed guards around the house where McCarty had been carried to prevent his escape. At this unlooked for procodure the citizens were very justly inerased, as the civil officers were both willing and able to see that the laws were properly enforced.

Agricultural Implement Agency.

We have so often expressed our opinion of the importance and necessity of the use of improved labor-saving implements, in the present changed condition of our labor system, as to render its repetition unnecessary now; but we are glad to have it in our power now to inform our readers that they can be supplied through the Agency of E. L. WOODWARD, jr. of the firm of Woodward & Son, with every description and variety, including the "Victor Grain Drill," which will soon be brought into requisition in sowing wheat. It is believed, and in fact has been actually demonstrated by experiment, that the use of this implement is not only a great saving of labor, but of about twothirds of the seed, while it nearly doubles the crop. Call upon Mr. W. and get descriptive catalogues, and any other information desired.

After the issue of our present number, it is our purpose that our paper shall assume a more interesting political aspect. Should the National Con. vention which assembles this day in New York, present the Southern prople with a platform and candidate affording any hope of relief, we shall then have something to contend for, and we hope also, some liberty in its exercise.

raised by a gentleman of an adjoining of the fact that they were hung out for the purpose of making them do so -On several occasions, soldiers, by order of Johnson, have pursued these girls, threateningly with bayonets, endeavoring to force them to walk back and pass under the flage. One lady was chased several hundred yards by one of these minions, whilst Johnson sat in his office chuckling at the cowardly sport. He sends his orderly after gentlemen, with orders for them to report at his quar. ters, for no other purpose than to insult and goad them to say or do' something that may give him a shallow protext for perpetrating some deed of violence, under cover of sixty or seventy bayonets at his disposal.

Mr. Editor, I cannot enumerate the grieviances suffered at the hands of this petty despot, who seems to act on his "own hook," and is not resposible to any superior for his conduct. We believe that he was sent here purposely to involve our community in trouble and if it be suffered to remain, he will do it Tuscaloosa has incurred the displeasure of the Military simply because she has been grossly misrepresented by a few of the meanest white villains that ever disgraced any locality in Christendom before.

This man Johnson has been publicly reprimanded for acts that should, at least, have caused him to be stripped forever of the uniform he disgraces .-It does seem, that such a tool is rather preferred by the General commanding, in order to humiliate us as much as possible. Johnson has been publicly repsimanded, but is now being privategenerous citizens, there was room for tice-of honor-humanity-he will rid Tuscalooosa-of this oppressor of the helpless.

THE GREAT Southern Preparations

OMPRISE a class of pure and select Family Medicines, prepared from pure Drugs, by a class of experienced Southern Physicians, specially for the diseases incident to a Southern locality.

They and not seeret nor patent mixtnes, and are recommended to be used in lieu of those prepared by our Northern friends, who know but little about Southern treatment.

Ours is the only class of Family Medicines ever offered to the public which were prepared by the Medical Profession:

FEMALES OF THE SOUTH.

Diseases peculiar to your sex, incident to all Diseases peculiar to your sex, incident to all localities, called from the passing breeze that fans you with its perfumed breath, or snatched from some pendant dew-drop; are to you a constant and abiding, trouble. Whether an inhabitant of city or country; hill or dale, palace or hovel, disease rankles and preys upon your vitals. Gloom and despair are your constant companions. Your pale and glastly countenance, your coloriess cheeks, your lifeless eye, your feeble and tottering walk, your palpitating heart, your dejected brow, all tell of that disease which is gradually and steadily making inrods upon your declining system.

The Sunshine of Hope

Now bursts upon your vision, and the clouds of despair that hangs as a heavy pall of gloom upon your brow can be driven back, and the bright visions of health, in all its grandeur, are offered you. DROMGOOLE & CO'S

is the only combination that netually and positively arouses and restores the womb to its natural healthy condition. It removes all its natural healthy condition. It removes all unnatural obstructions, relieves painful or suppressed Menstruation, cores Leucorrheea or Whites, Falling of the Womb, Hysterics, Chlorisis, Palpitation, Nervousness, Swimming and Giddiness of the Head, Melapcholy, Ulceration and Irritation of the Womb, Derangements of the Kidneys and Bladder, and all diseases that are peculiar to the female sex—afflicting old or young, married or single. Send and get one Bottle, it will do you good.

YOUR LIFE BLOOD

Must be changed in order to be relieved of that troublesome class of diseases requiring pure blood. DROMGOOLE & CO.'S

Constitutional Monarch

Is recognized by the Medical Profession as the BEST and most CERTAIN Blood Purifier now before the public, and why? Simply because it is composed of the best medicines for that purpose, viz: Stillingia, Yellow Dock, Sarsaparilla, Burdock, and Iodide of Potash. For Scroula, Cutaneous Eruptions, Skin Diseases Gout, Rhenmatism, Glandular Tumor, and Swellings, old Ulcers and Sores, Constitutional Derangements, etc., it acts like

DROMGOOLE & CO.'S Fluid Ext. Bearberry, Cubebs and

Buchu,

A highly concentrated medicinal compound, expressly for affections of the KIDNEYS & BLADDER, such as Incontinuence, Frequent Desire to Urinate, Urinary Deposits, Thick or Milky Urine, Effects of early Dissipation, Nervous Trembling, Gravel, Gout, Pains in the Back, Gleet, Loss of energy, Strangury, and all affections requiring a quick and relia-tile Diuretic.

In all cases of a want of action on the part of the Kidneys and Bladder, affecting old or young, male or female, this compound can be relied on.

CHILLS AND FEVER

Can be easily cured by using one Bottle of bromgoole & Co.'s KING OF CHILLS, which never fails to arouse the Liver, cleanse the Stomach, open the Bowels and relieve the most inveterate cases of Chills. One Bottle will cure a case of six months standing. .

DROMGOOLE & CO.'S Red Diarrhea Remedy,

The most certain and effectual cure for all forms of Diarrheea. Nausca and Vomiting Cramps, Cholera Morbus, pain in Stomach, summer complaint of children while teething It is exceeding pleasant, cools and quiets the stomach, is not an alcoholic preparation, contains no kino, catechu galls, tan-nin, logwood, etc. It imparts tone to the already debilitated stomach and bowels, and no family should be without a bottle. It never fails to cu:e.

PILES! PILES!!

Why is it you continue to suffer with Piles. when the remedy to cure you can be so easily obtained? Do not suffer another day; send immediately and procure one box of Dromgoole & Co.'s PILE SALVE and be cured Internal or external Piles, whether recent or long standing can be cured immediately.
Cannot Southern Physicians cure the Piles

as well as any one else? Try our remedy, Those Who Do Not Think

Gray hairs honorable, can have them restored to their notural color without staining the skin or scalp. It does not dye the hair, but simply RESTORES to its former color, and at the same time prevents it from falling off, cleanses the scalp of all dandruff and scurf, imperts a beautiful gloss and comes as near restoring hair to tht bald as any other prepa-ration. It is Dromgoole & Co's Tonic Hair Restorer; It is warranted.
THE GREAT SOUTHERN PREPARA-

TIONS, as a class of Family Medicines should be used by every body.

The Military After Ryland Randolph TUSCALOOSA MONITOR SUP PRESSED

The Papers Seized on the Streets , and Sent to Meadquarters!

Tuscaloosa, Ala., June 22d, 1868 Editor Times and Messenger .- By yesterday's mail an order was received here by Capt Hedburg from General Ku Clux Shepherd to again put the Editor of the Tuscaloosa Monitor under military duress. The pretended charge is a violation of General Order No. 51, issued by Gen. Meade, in reference to the "publication of articles tending to produce intimidation, riot, or bloodsned" The obnoxious article is found in the first issue of the Monitor after the release of Mr. Randolph by the Military Commission which tried him at Selma. The following extract is the basis of the charge: "As for carpet-baggers, scallawags and political niggers -1 will give them Arman's lot. Four lots lying north of a no quarter. They must either leave Tuscaloosa County, or remain and quit politics, or remain and risk the chances of suspension with hemp during the fierce reaction that is just be graning to set in."

This morning as the newsboy was distributing the Moniter, he was arrested on the streets, and the papers seized and taken from him. A fite of soldiers then went up and closed the Monitor office, and seiz de every issue upon which they could lay hands .-Headquarters where they will doubtless be consigned to the names. Mr. Randolph properly declined to walk into the parlor of the military spider. He has evaded an arrest, and will go directly to Gen Meade or his successor, and also to the President, and tay his complaint before them .-He stands no chance before the subsarraps and subordinate tetrarchs whose purpose is, of course, to utterly destroy his newspaper, the broadsides from whose port-holes has so terribly annoyed the minions of Radicalism for months past. Thus the petty despots who rule the South with an iron rod, are perpetrating a wrong which is forbidden to Congress itself by the Constitution of the country, not only "abridging the freedom of the press," but seizing and destroying newspaper presses because they oppose the cruel tyranuics of the party in power -Junius.

SINCE 1029, that is to say a period of 839 years, 130 famines have occured, in Russia; ten arising from climatic causes, being general and extending over the whole country. Partial scarcities, it has been remarked, are becoming more and more frequent. In the 13th century there were only three, while in the 16th there were cleven, and in the 18, thirty-four. The existing famine is the fortieth since the commencement of the 18th century.

John Bunyan, while in Bedford jail, was called upon by a Quaker, desirous of making a convert of him. -'Friend John, I have come to thee The Committee on Claims reported a bill granting $16,000 to the owner of the bark Barry, which was destroyed bill granting $16,000 to the owner of the bent you," returned Bunyan, "you need the bark Barry, which was destroyed not have taken so much pains to find me at sea by the Confederate cruiser out; for the Lord knows I have been proper.

Call of the Governor Elect

ASSEMBLING THE.

LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 26th, 1868 WHEREAS, by the terms of an Act of the Congress of the United State, entitled an "Act to admit the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama and Florida to representation in Congress," it is provided as follows:

."That, if the day fixed for the meeting of the Lgislature of either of said States, by the Constitution, or ordinance thereof shall have passed, or have so nearly arrived before the passage of this Act. that there shall not be time for the Legislature to assemble at the period fixed, such Legislature shall convene at the end of twenty days from the time this Act takes effect, unless the Governor elect shall sooner convene the same."

Now, therefore, I, WILLIAM H. SMITH, Governor elect for the State of Alabama, by the power and authority in me vested by said act of Congress, do hereby convene the Legislature of this State at the Capital, at the hour of 12 M., Monday, July 13th, 1868 W. H. SMITH, Governor Elect.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.

Just published, a new edition of Br. Culverwell's Cele brated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatornhora, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Importancy, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also Consumerton, Epilersy, and Firs, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extrava-game. And Price in a scaled envelope, only 6 cts. The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cared without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which ev-ery sufferer, no matter what bis condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

One lot tying south of same street fronting fifty feet and running back 100 feet and being east of Luttrell's Store; and four lots lying north of Chockolocko street, three of them fronting 50 and one 45 feet and all running areas sold. Four ions rying north of a new street lately laid out, the east one of which lies adjoining now's Mill field lying west of said Mill field and containing four acres more or less, the next west of the first, containing four acres more or less, the third west of the second, containing live acres more or less, the fourth inclusing some fractions and embracing the mountain, containing six acres more or less -one lot fronting Mechanics street on the north, west of Mrs. Vise's lot and cost of Gunnelse's fot containing three-fourths of an acre more or less; also lots lying west of the Kailroad, to-wit: One lot lying west of Doctor Williamse's stable lot fronting to feet on Mechanics street, and running north 2124 feet—one lot lying north of Doctor Williamse's stable lot, bounded by new streets on the north and west fronting on the street north 263 feet and the street west 115 feet-one lot lying north of Spencer & Lutrell's lots, bounded on the east by a new street and on the north by a new street, and one lot lying north of Doctor Heaton's lot, bounded by streets on the north and west, two lots adjoining the Railroad being bounded on the east by the Railroad, on the south by a new street and west by a new street and north by an allry, adjoining Hannah's line. Said lots contains one and a half acres each more or less—four lots bounded on the east and south by new streets and by an aliey adjoining Hannah's Land on the north, and on the west by a street between the Land of said intestate and Land belonging now to Wm. Heary, and said Lots containing one and a half acres more or less each. Also one undivided half interest in 80 acres of wood land lying west of Oxford, the number at present unknown. Said administrator allegis that there is a large amount of debts agamet said estate, the greater portion of which are in judgments against him as ad-ministrator of said Estate, that there is no personal property or other assetts out of wifich to raise money to satisfy said indebteduces without selling said Real Estate, and he therefore maxes this application for the purpose of obtaining an order of court authorizing him to sell said feel fistate to pay debts, &c., and that he be directed to sell the same at public outery, one half for eash, and the remaining half on a credit of twelve months with interest from date. Said administrator further states, that the said decedent left the following named persons as his heirs and next of kin, to-wit; Martha Simmons, widow of decedent, of full age, and several children, the names, ages, and sex of whom are unknown to said administrator, supposes the children to be mi-nors, and all of said Heirs reside in Lamar county in the State of Taxas; Thereupon, the premises considered—It is ordered by the Court, that the 13th day of July, 1868 be set for the hearing and determining upon said petition and application, and that notice thereof be given by publication in the Jack-

SLANDER

'Twas but a breath-And yet a woman's fair fame wilted, And friends, once fond, grew cold and stilted And life was worse than death.

One venomed word, That struck its coward poisoned blow In craven whispers, hushed and low, And yet the wide world heard.

'Twas but one whisper'd-one-That muttered low, for very shame, The thing the slander dare not name, 'And yet its work was done,

A hint so slight,
And yet so mighty in its power,
A human soul, in one short hour,
Lies crushed beneath its blight,
N.O. Pengune.

THAT'S WHAT IT IS -- In the United States Senate, on Wednesday, Mr. Saulsbury, of Delaware, very indignantly denounced the letting up of "pardon brokerage" in the Capitol. He asked Mr. Stewart (ultra Radical), from Nevada, whether his invariable rule in remitting disabilities had not been the fact that the individual was ready to vote the Radical ticket? Mr. Stewart bowed assent, and none of his party associates objected. This the world knew, but it is still of some interest to get the acknowledgment which in other days would have damned any party that made

Mr. Buchanan's Last Illness -- Ex-President Buchanan died of pleuro pneumonia. He had been ill for some months, but was getting better, until the recent damp spell caused a relapse. On Sunday his physician had hopes of his recuperation; but toward night he began to sink rapidly and exhibit the symptoms of early dissolution. Such of his relatives and friends as could be summoned were with him in his last moments He prayed and took the sacrament at six o'clock on Monday-morning. "God bless my country" were the last words expressed by him. and they were repeated by him several times in a whisper. One of his latest requests was, that ex-President Pierce, Filmore, and President Johnson be invited to atted his funeral. His funeral will take place at Wheatland on Thursday .- Commercial Advertiser.

Fearful Outrage in Kershaw Dis trict-Two Citizen Hanged and one Killed.

We learn, upon authority that we consider indisputable, that dispatches were received in Columbia Monday night from Camden, stating that an out break had occurred amongst the negroes in that vicinity, in the progress of which several of the most prominent citizens were forcibly incarcerated, and two of them hung, and that the sheriff of the district, in a futile effort to command the peace, had been fatally shot. It appears that the company of Federa! soldiers which had been sent to that point at the earnest solicitation of the citizens to quell the disturbances which were threatened in consequence of the killing of S. G. W. Dill last week, had received notice that they were to be relieved by a company from Columbia, and without waiting for the relief to arrive, had started from Camden The negroes taking advantage of their absence, rose en mass, and committed the horrible outrage to which we allude .-At this hour it is impossible to learn of the details or the names of the victims, and we await with solicitude further reports of what seems to us to possess every probability of truth.

Charleston News, 17th.

IMPORTANT TO WHEAT GROERS.-We copy the following form the Nashville Gazette, of the 14th-

An old and experienced farmer of Williamson county gives it as a fact that the following method is a sure prevention of the insect weevil in wheat. In piling up your wheat, after it has been eleaned with the fan, to every three bushels put in a good hard brick, well dried by the sun, and be sure it is perfeetly dry at the time you use it. The brick absorbs the moisture that naturallly accumulates in the grain and causes it to become so hard and flinty that the insect or fly cannot penetrate the outer covering. We are assured by persons who have made the experiment it is so easy and simple, we would advise our friends who grow or deal in wheat to try it.

HOW TO GET RICH or

"The Road to Wealth,"

Just Published-A NEW BOOK, by a Young Man, who commenced business with a capital of but $15, and attained in five years the handsome fortune of 40,000. This book con-tains information by which a sufficiency of this world's goods may be obtained in a fair and legal manner. It also shows the other side of the picture—that of the numerous schemes and dodges whereby thousands are yearly becoming wealthy without labor; together with information for the manufacture of articles which meet with a proady sale at all seasons of the year, where any one can clear at least $5,000 annually. Also 150 secrets of business, never before published. We cannot attempt to give a full description of the contents, but suffice to say that it opens an avenue to all which, pursued will surely lead to wealth. Young man, out of employ

DR. GEORGE W. LEACH proposes a new system of cure in place of the vast internal doses which enfeeble the stomach, poison the blood and endanger the life. He can be consulted at any time in Jackson-ville, personally or by letter, giving name of the person, whether over or under 35 years of age and the disease. Pe cures careers, wens, ulcers, scrotula, piles, diseases of the lungs, spine, kidneys, and some others; charging spine, kinneys, and some oners, con-but a very small amount in advance, after-wards if no cure no pay. He has a number of testimonials of cure—has recently treated II cases of cancer, seven of which are entirely well and the others getting well.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION -Many persons do not understand what is meant by the "Great Southern Preparations." Let us explain .-At Memphis, three experienced Southern Physicians, one of Memphis, one from Mississippi and the other from Louisiana, united their mental powers, their money and their experience, for the purpose of preparing for the Southern people a class of reliable Family Medicines, to be used in lieu of the many that are from those who know but little of our diseases, and they are called the "Great Southern Preparations," being eighteen or twenty in number. They are neither secrets ourpatents.

NINETEEN NEGROES DROWNED .-From a gentleman who reached our city. yesterday we learned the particulars, as far as could be gathered up to the time of his departure, of the drowning of nineteen negroes.

On Sunday last a party of twentyfive negroes, many of them under the influence of liquor, started from Burgess' Mill, on the Satilla River, in a small sail boat, to attend a meeting at Jeffersonton. On the way the boat, through the mismanagement of those who were sailing it, capsized, and nineteen of the party were drowned. The men and children.

Everything was done to recover the bodies, and up to two o'clock Wednesday afternoon eleven bodies had been found .- Savannah News 26th.

The Athens Acre Crops.

We copy from the Athens Southern Watchman the following report upom the competing acre crops in that city: PREMIUM WHEAT.—We have not received a full report of the contestants for the silver pitcher, but the following will show what Athens can do in the way of producing wheat: Dr. J. S. Hamilton, bushels Edward Baueroft,

A. P. Dearing, Alfred L. Dearing, Wm. M. Browne, Col. D. C. Barrow. Henry A. Gartrell, John W. Nicholson,

Taking into consideration the fact that all the above lots were more or less injured by rust, we think the experiments are very encouraging. It is the opinion of many that the yield would have been fifty per cent greater if the season had been favorable. This would give as large a yield, we believe, as has ever been produced anywhere, and demonstrates the fact that this section of Georgia is as well adapted to the production of wheat as any part of the world. Will our farmers take the hint, and learn to make great crops on small areas? This is the road to success where and high.

A correspondent from Florida craves a hearin:

"I think the Northern tax-payers, who make their living by honest toil. should know that for two months the Government has been distributing free rations to negroes in this State. In Leon county where the negroes registered about 2,700 voters (1,666) some 25,000 rations were issued last month alone. Do you give free rations to the laborers of the North?" No. but we, the saints, tax 'em on everything they eat and wear, and then tax 'em again to feed the gemmen, this new aristocracy of the South. New York World.

Truth from a Strange Source.

Don Piatt, a radical writer in the Cincinnati Commercial, who seems to have more honesty than generally fulls to the lot of mongrel politicians, says of his party: S. What is it?

Men go National Convention, now about to asthe State of Alabama, that I am not ex- | in poor and come out millionaires. For one dollar paid to the government from hard earned taxes, hundreds stick to the dry fingers of official scoundrels."

What do our "loil" neighbors think of this? Remember this is not the charge of "a rebel" but of a "trooly loil." The history of the world furnishes no parallel to the barefaced robberies, swindles. The leaders too of this pure party have the effrontery usution of any political or civil right, prive ally to justify or approve of the whole ilege, immunity enjoyed by any other system and they now ask the people to continue them in power by electing GRANT and COLFAX the candidates of the plunderers and their party Stark County (O) Democrat

Jacobins -- Nothing but Jacobins.

Under this appropriate head the New York Evening Express has the following article, which gives the Radicals the title which justly belongs to them. The Express says:

We like the ring of that resolution adopted yesterday by the Maine Democracy in State Convention, at Augusta.
"That the time had come for all to band against the Jacobins." "Sacobins" is the very best word in the language, hecause it is the word that has the most meaning, to properly characterize the Radical party. They call themselves Republican, but to that character, we all know, they have really no claim. There is positively nothing Republican about them, unless it be Red

Republicanism. They are Jacobins-because they scok to govern the people through the instrumentality of a Central Directory, .or a Rump Congress from whose decrees there is no appeal. They are Jacobins-because under the rallying ery of liberty, equity and fraternity they have, since their accession to power, helped to deluge the land with fraternal blood.

They are Jacobins-because under pretence of giving liberty to all men, they ave set up military despotism, which leave millions of men' of their own race, practically, no liberty whatsoever.

They are Jacobins-because they rule, and seek to rule, by force, intimidation and terror. They are Jacobins-because they have set up, and seek to set up, the power of the few over the wishes of the manv. They are Jacobins—because they are constantly seeking to stir up strife, and to excite the passions and prejudices of one class of people against another class. They are Jacobins-because they are oternally attempting mischievous experi ments in government, politics, finance; -incessant agitation being an aliment without which they cannot exist.

They are Jacobins-because of the conscriptions and forced levies, to feed the jaws of war and of death, with which their name must ever be historically associated.

It took the French people some years to get rid of this bideous monster. Jacobinism-but as an end was made of it at last so we, too, if historical parallels semble, but act-whith ordinary discretion, the hideous thing, with its ghastly accompaniments will be deep down in its grave about the time the wintry winds of November are whistling in our ears.

The Democracy of Mississippi are sweeping the State. The indications are that the infamous constitution concoated by negroes and carpet-baggers has been repudiated by the reople.-The people, the tax-paying people of Arkansas defeated the constitution in thrt unfortunate State by at least twenty thousand votes: but the last day of the election the thieves and scallawags stuffed the ballot box with thirty or forty thousand fraudulent votes. Such infamy may yet be perpetrated in Mississippi. The news, however, is most, glorious. We believe our gallant sister in misfortune has administered a signal rebuke to despotism and to the

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR, OF MISSOURI.

National Democratic Convention.

Candidates Nominated for President and Vice-President.

We have kept our paper open until Saturday morning, in order to give our readers the latest news from the National Convention. On the 9th at 16 minutes after 1 o'clock, the Convention unanimously nominated Hox. HORATIO SEYMOUR, of New York for President, giving him 317 votes, amidst the wildest enthusiasm and applause in the Convention, and the booming of cannon without. An hour later, GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR, of Missouri, was unanimously nominated for Vice-President, receiving 317 votes, amidst like scenes of enthusiasm. Gen. Wade Hampton cast the vote of South Carolina, and Gen. Forrest of Tennessee, amidst shouts of applause.

Gen. Blair is said to be the author of the noble platform unanimously adopted. Every body in and out of the Convention seemed highly pleased and gratified with the nomination, and pledged themselves each to the other, the most hearty co-operation and carnest work for

The election of Seymour and Blair is considered as certain as it is possible for any future event to be.

THE ARKANSAS REPRESENTA-

Protest of the Democratic Members of the House of Representatives Against their Admission.

WASHINGTON, June 24. The following is the protest which Mr. Brooks proposed to offer in the House to-day against the admission of the Representatives of the State of Ar-

The recognized presence of three persons on the floor of this House from the State of Arkansas, sent here by military force, acting under a Brigadier General of the army, but nevertheless claiming to be members of this Congress, and to share with us, the Repous and destructive innovation upon the principles and practices of our hitherto constitutional self-government. The so-called reconstruction acts which created the military governments in Arkansas and like governments in other Southern States to share with us in the legislative power of the Northern and Western free people, we have every reason to believe, have been held Court of the United States, the public only by the extraordinary and strange jurisdiction from the Court in the McArdle case, when such a public decision was about to be made. Of the three seems, then, that after the Executive vetocd these acis as unconstitutional. the judiciary adjudicated them to be so, while a Congress, the creation of but of the Union, overrides these equal and co-ordinate branches of that Government, first by voting down the vetoes, next by nullifying the Judgment of the Court. In an era of profound peace, when not an armed man rises against the Government from the Potomac to the Rio Grande, there, in ten States, our American historical way of creating the organic law has been utterly subverted by the bayonet. Ever since the Declaration of Independence-with scarcely an exception-and even amid the battles of the Revolution, conventions have been convoked through, and constitutions created by, the electors of the States, the only authorized depositories of the sovereign power of every State. without exterior dictation, as under the existing Federal Constitution. The hardest and barshest test oath required from 1776 to the peace of 1783 was an abjuration oath of allegiance to George the Third, while some of the so-called bayonet made Constitutions from the South propose absurd and cruel tests-absurd, as in Arkansas, where is interwoven in the organic law as a mere party test between the Radical Reconstructionists and the Democratic Conservatives, such as would exclude from voting, if living there, the thousands and tens of thousands and hundreds of thousands of Democrats in the free States, (article 8, where no white man can vote who will bers of Congress from Arkansas not forever forswear his own race and James Brooks, color and perjure himself by swearing in defiance of the law of God, that the P Van Trump, negro is his equal, and forever to be CA Eldridge, his equal, at the ballot box, in the jury- S J Randall, box, with the cartcuch box, in the A J Glossbrenner, school, in the college, in house and S Archer, home by the fireside-in short, in every way, everywhere-(article 7, section Now, these and the other Southern States, in the midst of war, President Lincoln, in his proclamation of December 8, 1863, offered amuesty and pardon to rebels then in arms if they would lay down their arms and take an oath of fidelity, while now not a Union man in Arkansas or Alabama can vote unless in the first place he swears allegiance to Charles Sitgreaves, the majesty of this Congress, and in the Lewis M Ross, next swears off his Americanism and H McCullough Africanizes himself. Hitherto, Con-JP Knott, stitutions with us have been the outgrowth of popular life, springing from the exuberance of our enterprise and energy in the settlement of the forests or prairies of our country; but here before us now are nine constitutions with one, if not three, more to come from upon the people by five military satraps for years, and immediately upon his or Pentarchs in the manner never be- retirement, or virtual ejection from office, fore known under our law, but borrowed at best from imperial Roman civilization, or from the worst precedents of the French revolution. If we use words in their acof the army, who represents the sword, and only the sword of the Republic, has been exalted by acts of Congress above the constitutional Commander-in-chief of the army and navy, in order to execute those military decrees, and as the surer way to throw out every vestige left of constitutional law or liberty, the same General of the army, in order to prolong or perpetuate his military domination, North and West, as well as South, has been selected in party Convention at Chicago to head the electoral vote for Presidency in ten of our States, which are as much under his feet as Turkey is under the Sultan, or Poland | publish the duplicate, no doubt in his resentatives from the free States, in the | under the Czar of Russia. But, as if imposition of taxes and customs and only to add insult to the injury of this other laws upon our people, makes it | military outrage upon the popular Govour imperative duty, in this the first erament in these ten States either by case, to remenstrate most solemnly and act of Congress or by these Congress to protest as solemnly against the peril- soldier made State Constitutions, at least 250,000 whites have been distrantchised, while 759,000 negroes, inexperienced in all law making, and more ignorant than our children, have been thus been created absolute masters and sovereigns over the whole white population of the South. Because of all this, and in opposition to all this, we, Representatives of the to be unconstitutional by the Supreme people from the free States, in behalf of our constituents, and of thousands declaration of which fact was avoided and tens of thousands of others who would be here represented if the popudevice of this Congress in snatching lar power without could now constitutionally act here, within, carnestly and solemnly protest against this violence upon our Constitution and upon our peogreat branches of the Government, it ple, and do hereby counsel and advise all friends of popular government to submit to this force and fraud only until at the ballot-box, operating through the elections, this great wrong can be twenty-seven of the thirty-seven States put right. There is no law in the land over the constitutional law; there is no government except constitutional government; and hence all bayonet made, all Congress-imposed constitutious are of no weight, authority; or sanction, save that enforced by arms, an element of power unknown to Americans in peace, and never required but as it acts in and under the supreme civil law, the Constitution, and the statutes enacted in pursuance thereof.

We protest, then, in behalf of the free people of the North and West, against the right of this military oligarchy, established in Arkansas or elsewhere in the now re-enslaved States, of the South, to impose upon us, through Congress, taxes, customs or other laws to maintain this oligarchy or its Freedmen's Burcaus.

We protest against going into the now proposed copartnership of military dietators and negroes in the administration of this Government We demand in the name of the fathers of the Constitution and for the sake of prosperity, net its reconstruction, but the restoration of that sacred instrument which has been to us all a pillar of fire from 1787 on to its present overthrow; and in all solemnity before God and man, under a full sense of the responsibility of all we utter, we do hereby affix our names to this protest against the admission of section 4;) or cruel, as in Alabama, these three persons claiming to be mem-

Papers Suppressed by Stanton. Edwin M. Stanton will be remarkable in history as the first man in this country who has retired from a high position of responsibility and trust in which the Texas, which have all been imposed had been prominently before the publichas subsided into utter insignificance .-When we consider that there are hundreds of men who have been imprisoned tiles, or who were otherwise victims of licens unrestrained, we can readily conpower which he assumed, once more a mere citizen, and liable to such suits to bring, obscurity and insignificance come periodical literature, as in great and the very contempt of oblivion are revolution. To the Southern Press. I am too fully assured of the interest the Press of the South feels in the success of legitimate Southern enterprises, to apologize for asking general publicabrief summary in compliance therewith: At a meeting of the Board of Direcenfranchised in their stead, and have heers of the Southern Life Insurance prompany, theld at their office in the city of Atlanta, Ga., on the 18th day of June, 1868, the following preamble and resolution was offered and adop ed:

tion of the following resolution and

WHEREAS. It is reported to this office that many prominent men in every section of the South desire to insure in the 'Southern Life Insurance Company,' provided it is ascertained to be both reiable and strictly Southern in character. Therefore,

It is resolved by the Board of Direcors of the "Southern Life Insurance Company," That the President be requested to furnish to the public such facts as in his judgment will place the company in its true light before the Southern people It would really seem that the names of the directory should be a sufficient guaranty both in respect to reliability and the Southern character of this Company: As to reliability. I wish to make this general remark, that all well managed Life Insurence Companies are reliable. Those of the South as well as those of other sections. How long shall the South be taunted with the idea that her organizations are all unreliable, and how long will our people continue to encourage these charges by withholding patronage from their own people and sending their capital away to other sections? Will no solid monied basis-no array of names of honorable men, and able financiers suffice? What are the facts? Are Southern Insurance Companies unreliable? Do the 'Planters' Fire," the "Hernando." the 'Southern Mutual Fire," the "Georgia Home" and others which I might mention, settle losses less promptly or less fairly than Companies of other sections? Away with this pernicious idea! But to the Southern Life. It begun business with a larger cash capital than any Northern Company of which I have any knowledge-some of the strongest and most successful of these gigantic institutions commencing on less than half of the capital of this Company. It has promptly adjusted an amount of losses, or 'payments due policy holders rarely equaled in the history of such companies. Its financial condition challenges the closest scrutiny and the fact reflects the highest credit upon the fi naucial ability of the Memphis Direc-

It cannot yet boast of its millions of accumulations, but it is abundantly able to pay all its policies, and if the people will appreciate the scope of its patriotic purposes, will soon have for investment the vast sums now being taken from this section by foreign companies. As to the second point in question, it is simply purely Southern. Every stockholder, with one exception, is a resident of a Southern State, and that one has removed from the South since he became a subscriber to the stock All of its investments are, and will continue to be, made in the Southern States—all of its accumulations be re-tained here for the benefit of our own impoverished section. It is the fixed determination of the Directors-who are known to the people-as well as the stockholders, that none of its accumulations shall constitute any portion of that vast sum-the six million dollars-of which the South is annually drained by insuring life in foreign corporations.

As to this department, consisting of the States of Georgia, North and South Carolina, and Florida, it stands upon the records of this office, that the accumulations of this department shall be invested in the States named.

Expressing the hope that this will he a sufficient and satisfactory answer to those who honestly desire information on the subject, as well as to that classwho would continue, by misrepresentation of the character of this Company, to beguile our poverty stricken people into the continuance of the suicidal policy of sending their money away from our section, I request that all papers willing to aid in cheeking this enormous drain on our resources, give this circular insertion and circulation.

THE NEW YORK CONVENTION!

A Platform Adopted!

The Ring of the Pure metal? Balloting for the Nomination!

A Terrible Accident.

An Eminent New Yorker Killed. Alexander Stephen's Name Cheered

&ć., &c. FROM NEW YORK.

New York, July 7.—Peter Cagger and John F Devlin were thrown from a carriege this morning and Mr. Cagger was instantly killed. Mr. Devlin was seriously hurt.

Mr. Cagger's death was announced in the Convention. A resolution offered by Alexander H.

Stephen was read and referred. The name of Mr. Stophens was loudly checred.

The platform reported from the Committee on Resolutions was unanimously adopted amid immense cheering:

The following are the leading points of the platform:-1. Slavery and secession are regarded as dead issues.

2 The bonds of the United States are payable in lawful money, unless upon their face they call for coin. 3. Equal taxation of all property, in cluding bonds. 4. One currency for all. 5. Economy in the administration of the government. 6. Reduction of the army and navy 7. Abolition of the Freedmen's Burea and of inquisitorial modes of collect ing the revenue

9. Subordination of the military to the civil authority. .. IO .- Rastoration of all the States to the Union ... I1 .- Amnesty for all political affences, including the restoration of suffrage in all the States. 12 -The control of suffrage belongs to each State exclusively for itself, and Congress has usurped it in violation of the Constitution.

13.—THE RECONSTRUCTION ACTS ARE UNCONSTITUTIONAL AND VOID. 14 - Thanks Mr. Johnson.

15 .- Invites all parties to unite on this platform. .. The Convention proceed to ballot

LIFE INSURANCE. - We would remind our readers that the Insurance Company upon the subject of which we publish the communication of Gen Gorden in to-day's paper, is the Memphis and Louisville company, and of which Capt. P.B. Shepard, is an efficient and liable District Agent for this section. Capt. Shepard is now in our place, and will be pleased to attend to any business in the Insurance line.

We are compelled from want of room to defer until next week several communications.

RAIN.-After several light showers during the few preceding days, we had a rain commencing on Friday morning and continuing some six hours. The rain appeared to be general and we now have hope of a fair average corn crop in this section.

The New Orleans Times of the 30th gets off the following to be sung upon the opening of the Legislature:

From New Hampshire's geen mountains. From the old Nantucket's strand, From Lake Ontario's fountains, 'And Huron's golden sand; From old Wisconsin river And famed Iowa's plains, We are coming to deliver

We love the spicy breezes That blow from Afric's shore, A secut that so well pleases Who would not thirst for more. Thick lips and coal black faces, The gifts of God are shown, We'll take these dusky races And mingle with our own.

This State to negro chains!

Should we whose souls are lighted With wisdom from on high, Wait still to be invited Before we hither hie? When offices are waiting,

And plander is to reap, Not at the present stating, When earpet-bags are cheap. Text of the Fourteenth Amendment

The following is the fourteenth amendment proposed to the Constitution, which the Radicals are moving heaven and earth to have adopted. In view of the fact that the Southern States are likely soon to be admitted, and the amendment in question will immediately thereafter be declared adopted, the reading public will be glad to have the exact terms of the article:

For the Jacksonville Republican. NO TIME TO SPARE.

A SEQUEL TO NOTHING TO WEAR

A Rhyming Epistle, Dedicated to my Nieces.

There's a gay dashing Lady, who lives on blank street, She is young and she's pretty, she's graceful and sweet; She has been to big schools too, to get her head stuffed With all that in schools is so very much puffed, As being the learning that must now stand in lieu Of all they once used to keep foremost in view, For training young ladies, for such mothers and wives

As decend to the useful in spending their lives,

And were taught—silly things! to deem that good spelling, Was far more important than dancing and flirting. And had scarce eyer beard tell of all the hard names, Which the young ladies now learn to addle their brains-The ologies, osophies, etries and such like; Full enough to make all the men colleges strike, As being more learning than they ever could master, In seven long years of the harder and fuster.

But all this is not, what I most wanted to say— For my heart is quite full, of the why and the way, These poor creatures have come to so dreadful a pass; That they have not a moment to spare—but alas! Must still keep agoing one round or another, (Though sometimes they say 'tis a very great bother!)
Or else when at home, 'tis the one dreadful ditty; Of stitching and stitching-Ah! me, what a pity! On fine bands for the sleeves, for the skirts for the neck, Without which you could not but fear, the entire wreck Of the Universe broad would need forthwith ensue Should these matters now go, as they once used to do, In the time of their mothers who were nothing wiser Than to work for their father, their brother, their sister; And then could spare time to work for the needy. The sick and the suffering, both far off and near by, Nor ever thought more of their own darling sweet self, Than of brothers and sisters and every one else. And in fact, felt 'twas better to make aprons and shirts, Than to weigh down their bodies with manifold skirts.— Skirts of whalebone, or steel, or spiral brass wire, Without much regard to the accidents dire. Which often fill out the lists of catastrophies-Throwing our gents into all sorts of rhapsodies.—
Sometimes of the comick, sometimes of the tragick And sometimes of such other as to make us quite sick, Of crinolines, skeletons, and all the hoop list

But on this for the present I will not insist, For would these gay belles get something to wear, That would not at all times be in need of repair, There would be less to complain of -I freely confess For then there'd be time for something else beside dress. And I can't help but hope, now this Atlantic cable Has been made to hold out, their inventors are able, To get up some hoops, that will collapse and extend, Till the fashion of tub-forms, shall come to an end.

Now in sober entreaty, dear girls of this town, Why don't you all try to put these false customs down? For why should you ape the vain city pretensions Of those who are led by ridiculous fashions? Or at least, I beseech you to keep them in check Nor madly thus follow that base humbug; and wreck Health, fortune and peace, with all sober good sense, At the shrine of that vampire the taste for expense! Still the foremost in getting, and first in the storm To scramble your persons into Lady Book form, For there's nothing so good, so graceful, so neat— That can pass muster at all, out of Godey Book print.

Yet believe me, there's nothing on earth more absurd Than for folks at the South to go muffled and furred, Because those at the North, to keep from congealing, Are induced to this course by natural feeling. Moreover, to me, its not little the wiser For those in the country to keep the same stir, That city belies make about Paris made hats, Dresses, mantles and all else, from shoes up to caps. Though for that 'tis wellknown by every milliner, These come from the Palais, and are nothing bette Than the castaway shop-keepers, laid aside yearly By the Boulevard ton, though here prized so dearly.

But now then, to return to this lady of mine, Though of every ten, I dare say there are nine So every way like her, in the very great fact Of dressing up churn fashion, and walking with tact So to turn all the corners with flipaty flap, And throw out the long train in drawing-room order; To show to advantage, one ankle or tother. For all should be taught it is not modest to show The two sides, at one time, of the tip of the toe. So the empress appendage trails three quarters or so, On the stones, round the feet, in the dirt or the snow And indeed, to say, only truth, wherever they go. Neither are these nine like her in this, -but ah! more, They are like her in what I still farther deplore, As the hardest of fates, -not one moment to spare. And believe me 'tis worse than the nothing to wear.

Our Miss Blank, the poor girl, was indulging in tears Sadly bemoaning the fate of some pretty dears, "Whose mamma was so cruel she made them lay by, The work they were doing, she observed with a sigh To make themselves decent, -for embreidery to buy, Their papa was so horrid, he would not consent, And now, only think, they're forced to sew through all lent. To make up warm clothes for the blind, deaf, sick and poor, Though she said there was nothing on earth could be lower ! But for her, though 'twas true, her father was richer, Not richer alone, but both kinder and wiser, And allowed her, beside, much money to spend, All her time to herself, to shop, visit or wend Wherever she fancied, from morning to night, She never was able through the longest day-light, From eating and chatting, and walking and dressing Tho' this may seem something too hard for believing-For painting or drawing c'en one moment to spare-Any more than poor Flora of Nothing to wear! So of course all her pity but ended in tears— For how in creation could she help the poor dears? With all she was forced to manage still for herself, To keep from the said fate of a place on the shelf! For who could e'er think of being caught in the fact, Of wearing a garment not ruffled or tacked? Nr trimmed up with something of the very last pattern, For other than this would be out of all fashion.

"It was true though, she said, it might look well enough, In sermons, or tracts, and such other solemn stuff. For church ladies to give of the fruits of their hands, To civilize heathens and send out to far lands, The bible, and books and assist to build churches, But these people, she said, 'twas hoped kept clean faces!
And at any rate, lived so far over the sea, There was no earthly fear they'd come troubling me;-Or ever be rude enough, the awful poor creatures, To show me their rags, or their pale, sickly features. Yes, this sort of humbug may succeed in its way, For old maids, and all such as have nothing to pay, For cluny and Ginpure, and Valencienne lace And such other mode things, as are needed to grace, A lady of ton, and keep up her position; In the circle she moves ins the upper ten station."

Not content too, to heap up brocades and antiques, On the yards in her dress, Miss Blank herself piques. Ah! no wonder there's trouble in Bank and in stock, When round hundreds are spent on one lady's frock! And more money and goods are used up for one belle, Than would clothe, feed and shelter, more than I dare tell, Of the poor, starving creatures, now left in distress, Because upper ten circles can't do with aught less. For who in this epoch of refinement and grace Could suppose a fine lady, would dare show her face. Unless she were rigged from the head to the toe, In pine apple, or cashmere, or something to show, She can spend with the best, and throw away dollars On what is most needless of tissues and collars-Or ever would think-in her dress code-a great waste, Of buying such dressing, as is not the last taste!

She says too, "'tis most shocking to think of Miss Bliss-Who is neither ugly nor old, and only for this .-Would pass for society, quite above common-But really it is something, too antic for fun-She, -- now could you believe it? sent all she could raise And some to the measure pretend to give praise, To pay a colporter | and then, help to defray, The losses incurred at the Quarantine Ray. To be sure 'tisn't pleasant to hear of sick people!

Of their dying and burning—when all too, is real.—

But there is surely no need of such things to talk

As they've nothing to do with the upper ten walk!

And it cannot be right on ourcars to intrude, Such poor paltry matters as belong to the rude.

For how soon we rich people find time for aught else; Than what must be done every day for one's self? In fact, tho' it is not in the very best tate, To go early to church, or to seem in great haste, There is not one moment we ever can spare, Still excepting the time devoted to prayer, To think over the all we must do the pext week, What cards to acknowledge, and what visits repeat? To examine new costumes, and make out with care, The programme of dressing for next Sunday's wear."

But now dearest ladies, to go on with my tale, The my powers of description must utterly fail, To do the facts justice, or to bring to full light The awful ingratitude—the malice downright, That exists in big cities, amongst all the poor,
Who have the effrontery to throng round your door,
And seem not to know, that it is truly unpleasant, To have them approach you—in despite of the cant Of some men, I know of, of very bad manners, And of course cannot know of any such matters!" As if one could believe those of plebian birth, Could with us e'en be made of the same sort of earth !

Nor is this my dear ladies a fiction of mine, For I received it myself from one of the nine. Tho' now, and alas! her poor head lies in the dust, Which she shares with the lowest. For us let our trust Be placed on a far better foundation than this For our happiness here, or eternity's bliss. But now let us go back to the thread of my tale, Tho' should I fail to strike right on the head of the nail, I can tell you some facts, you will marvel to hear, Of the crosses and losses, Miss Blank had to bear. But first, let me tell you of Mr. Hoop hater, The horrible monster, staid later and later-In spite of all hints of the why, where and when, The ladies would certainly need follow the men. And then when they wished, but for modesty's sake, To go on in advance, and the precedence take-No, he allow'd her no chance to manage her hoops-Tho' of Empress extension, and all sorts of loops-For how could she possibly, get down to dinner When he, the vile savage, descended before her?" For he said, the base reptile! he never could see, What these hoops were all good for, if not to display, The trimmed underskirts to the turn of the knee. For beyond this grave purpose they sure did not pay And indeed he could prove it on any fair day. When the women, kind creatures! seemed willing to walk, Around and around again, to make the men talk, And would sooner have gone to bed without supper Than leave the poor fellows for their absence to suffer!

And again our Miss Blank, had big troubles besides. She had troubles in walks, and she'd troubles in rides. And over all this, she had many distresses, Of the how and the way to get all her dresses, Finished up in good time, and made up in good taste; And yet after all this, and in spite of great haste. She full often was left in a very sad plight, And had to stay home, or go out guite a fright!

After coaxing, and triping to let all oth'r work stay,

As of minor importance to some future day,

"For the dumpy Miss Fatty—and gawky Miss Paul,
it mattered not how they dressed for the ball.—
In plain fact no one cared, if they went not at all;
For how could they make any sort of isspression,
Rigged out as they were in such downly old fashion! For now could they make any sort of aspression, Rigged out as they were in such dowdy old fashion! But for her, 'twould be shocking to think of things made Except by men milliners, and first of the trade. It is certain, she said, give your work to the poor, Yon still must expect to be dated at Nonh.

And then to trust satins, and blonds and illusions, The must father that the trust of the poor, the sating of the poor of th To such fifthy hands was the worst of delusions.

Besides, she said laughing, "I have no time to play,
With their nasty sick brats while they work in my pay,
Tho' this I've been told, not at all to her credit—
Was done by Miss Blass, though I hardly believe it. And I'll make her deny it this very same night, Or I'll cut her acquaintance forthwith, and out right.

With your leave, I digress for I still have to tell, With your leave, I digress for I still have to tell, How the worst of catastrophies, to her befell, 'Tis truly a story so very pathetic, I know it must touch every heart sympathetic: The dreadful denoument of one Opera night, When our heroine's dress, bought and trimmed by gas light, After all was a failure by some oversight, In the best model artest of Indy's appar. I But this vampire, no doubt was corrupted to sell, Her a pattern he said of the Ristori border. When 'twas afterwards proved to be an old order. Miss Growky, the creature! broke out in rude laughter. Miss Gawky, the creature! broke out in rude laughter, To find how the cheater, had found herself cheated, And by her own arts, had been fully defeated!

But now I must close my account for the present, For I never could dwell on the sad or unpleasant; Suffice it to say, for I can't paint in tragicks, Miss Blank acted the scene in Op'ra hystericks! So I trust you'll allow me, the no time to spare, Is sadder by all odds than the nothing to wear.

lutions put forth by the late Republican [Applause.] Convention. I aver there is not in this body one man who has it in his heart to excite so much of angry feeling against and in view of the condition of our country.

In the first place, they congratulate the perplexed man of business, the hours of toil are lengthened out by the growing cost of the necessaries of life, upon the success of that reconstruction despotism and the corruption of its Bureau agencies. In one resolution they denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime. Then why did they put upon the statute books of the nation the laws which invite the citizens who borrow coin to force their creditor to take debased paper, and thus wrong him out of a large share of his claim in violation of the most solemn compact? [Loud cheering.]

If repudiation is a national crime, it is a crime to invite the citizens of this country thus to repudiate their individ ual promise. [Applause] Was it not alerime to force the creditors of this and other States to take a currency at times worth no more than forty cents on the dollar in payment for the sterling coin they gave to build roads and canals which yield such ample resources of wealth and prosperity? [Applause.]

Again they say it is due to the laborer of the nation that taxation should be equalized. Then why did they make taxation unequal. Beyond the injustice of making one class of citizens pay for another the shares of the cost of schools, of roads, of the local law, which protected their lives and property, it was an unwise and hurtful thing --[Cheers.] It sunk the credit of the country as unusual terms are always hurtful to the credit of the borrower.

They also declare the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is so to improve our credit that capitalists will seek to loan us money at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and we must continue to pay so long as repudiation is threatened or suspected. Then why have they used five hundred millions of the tax drawn from the people of this country to uphold a despotic military authority, and to crush out the life of States, when, if this money had been now seek to lend us money at lower rates of interest. Treasury Frauds.

The Washington correspondent of the Louisville Journal, in a letter dated the 28th ult., says:

When a history of the administration of the Treasury Department for the past three years shall come to be fully written the country will stand aghast. We all know the doings of the whisky ring; there are grave and wellfounded suspicions of a large issue of spurious bonds and coupons from genuine plates: but the sum total of the performances in the cotton line remains a sealed book to the public. Shortly after the close of the war the Chief of the Produce Loan of the Confederate States, by whom all the cotton belonging to that Government had been purchased, offered under the advice of high Confederate officials, to discover to Mr., McCulloch all the bona fide Confederate cotton in the South, which was estimated at 110,000 bales this side of the Mississippi river. Mr. McCulloch clined the offer, saying that he had own agents, and intimating that they would secure the property. Now, mark the result. The South was overrun by a band of legalized robbers who stole (that is the word for it) not less than 100,000 bales of private cotton,. whilst by some hocus pocus the public cotton disappeared-not 20.000 bales of it having found their way into the Government stealeries. But little of the private cotton, or the proceeds thereof, has ever been restored to the owners, and it is this money which it is alleged Mr. McCulloch has had deposited for so long a time with his friends Jay, Cooke & Co., they allowing him four per cent. per annum, whilst thousands of widows and orphans to whom it appropriately bolongs, are on the verge of starvation. The Southern delegates know all about this, and Mr. Johnson must get rid of McCulloch if he would secure the confidence of the sufferers.

FOR PRESIDENT. HON HORATIO SEYMOUR FOR NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR, OF MISSOURI.

PROGRESS OF OUR RAILROAD. On Tuesday last, for the first time since the road passed this place, we passed up the entire distance of the construction of the road up to that time, about 20 or 28 miles to near the State line: we also passed some two miles above where the iron was laid down, to an extensive rock cut, some 43 feet deep, where a number of hands were engaged, and had this gigantic work almost completed. sufficient in fact for the passage of cars and the continuance of the work of construction. It had been estimated that this work alone would occupy four months for completion; but under the almost magic wand of that energetic and efficient superintendent of excavation and grading, Mr. Cary, six weeks only had been occupied in work upon it, just the time to a day he said it would take him, with the force at his command.

We found the road thus far neatly and substantially finished, and work progressing with all the regularity of the hands of a clock, at the rate of about one half mile per day, which will complete the road to Rome about the first of September; but as the distance is shortened and the force concentrated, the work will progress more rapidly.

We were in company almost the entire day with CAPT E. G. BARNEY, the energetic and efficient General Agent and Superintendent of construction, from whom we obtained much valuable and interesting information, on many but particularly the subjects of the construction and building of canals and railroads, and the sources of prosperity for cities, towns, villages and communities. With a mind eminently practical, an energy and perseverance that knows no such word as fail, and from whose vocabulary the word discouragement has long since been discarded, he brings everything to the touchstone of utility. With these qualifications and the superadded advantages of 32 years practical experience, we doubt whether he has a superior in the construction of railroads in the United States. Such a man we regard as a public benefactor, and de serving of more esteem and honor than all the spouting politicians of the 40th Congress put together.

We also had the pleasure during the day of becoming acquainted with that saving. Now, indeed, there is a great intelligent, affable and friendly gentleman, CAPT. M. STANTON, who is the capable and efficient Agent of Transportation at Selma, and who also has the advantage of some ten years' experience-in his complicated, laborious and responsible branch of business. Altogether, we passed a very profitable, and also pleasant day, barring the fatigue of some five miles walk over some pretty rough places, which was relieved and enlivened however, by the valuable information received from Capt. B. and the interesting conversation and spicy jokes of our old friend Warren Harris.

This work, so long and ardently desired by our citizens, is now rapidly drawing to a successful close. We look back upon its commencement as upon the days of our youth. It will almost in not quite double the value of every acre of land for several miles on either side-add fifty per cent. to the value of that further off-put a new face upon almost every thing, and promote the prosperity of all branches of business. We congratulate our fellow-citizens on this consummation, and assure them that we rejoice now, as we have ever done, in all that promotes their happiness and prosperity.

The Republican in a New Dress.

We feel so perfectly satisfied with the nominations made by our National Democratic Convention, for President and Vice President, and so perfectly hopeful and confident of success-never more so in the last forty years - that we feelin our paper. Two or three dollars from each one who is now in arrears, will enable us to accomplish the object without embarrassment, and encourage us in the carnest and ardent, but hopeful political struggle upon which we have entered. would not hold one half or one-tenth of the articles we see in our exchange papers, heartily endorsing and ratifying the nominations of Seymour and Blair; we must therefore content ourselves with assuring our readers that every where, by the great mass of democrats and conservatives, these nominations have not only been cordially endorsed and ratified, but received with demonstrations of the wildest enthusiasm, coupled with the most unbounded confidence of success and victory. Everywhere, from Maine to California, monster ratification meetings have already been held by the people, who by music, illuminations and the firing of guns, have proclaimed their unbounded satisfaction with the action of the National Convention, and their cuthusiastic admiration of the great, and good, and true men nominated; and that too on a platform, not false, swindling, equivocal and two-faced like the Radical, but bold, honest, candid and truthfuldodging no issue, and evading no responsibility-promising equal and exact justice to all, and the restoration of constitutional government in that pristine purity in which it was handed down to us by our revolutionary fathers. We publish the platform in this paper, together with the speech of Gov. Seymourto the Convention, and the letter of Mr. Blair, in all of which our readers will find perfect concord and harmony, and in sentiment and principle all that they could hope for and desire. The address of the soldiers and sailors Con. vention and speech of Thomas Ewing, ir, they will also find exceedingly interesting and cheering.

The Radicals say, that in 1861, there was a great uprising of the people to save the Union. But time and events have proven, that a Union without a Constitution, governed by the despotic usurpations of a corrupt party, held together only by the "cohesive power" uprising of the people, combining the intelligence, honor and virtue of the nation, to save both the Union and the Constitution: and when the news of a she should be chaste in all her ways; great victory by that party shall be flashed by the electric current from ocean to ocean, all over this broad land, a shout will go up to heaven that will make the angels glad.

Something New Useful and Valuable.

A newly invented Churn Dasher has been introduced into this section, called Finley's Patent Churn Dasher, a very ingenious instrument which has proven by actual use thus far made to be a great improvement on the old p'an. The labor of churning can be performed in about one-third of the time occupied in the old mode, and considerably more butter obtained from the same quantity of milk. In any ordinary sized family it will pay for itself in a week. These results, not of conjecture, but by practical experience of reliable persons in our midst One of the Dashers has been in use for a short time in the family of the publisher of this paper, and we can youch for the correctness of the advantages claimed by the patentee. We cannot without occupying too much space, give an accurate idea of this ingenious invention, but any one can see it at a glance by an examination.

Editor Jacksonville Republican:

DEAR SIR-The age of Jacksonville is not known to the writer; it is said she has attained the years of her majority. but her public walks do not indicate it. If she is 21, she should be up and doing. She has lain in the mudlong e nough-the irregularities and improprieties of her walks and ways should be corrected-she should be chasto in all her ways. It is bad to indulge in habitual improprieties and icregularities of conduct, when strictly confined to the family alone: but Jacksonville now has visitors from abroad, and will deubtless have others, and to make her visitors feel pleasant, and for her own character her public walks should be of a proper grade; and all improprieties removed

To whose training she is indebted for her former course is not known to the writer, nor is it worth enquiry The question is how will she conduct herself in the future?

It is said she has a number of Councillers, to regulate & control her walks. Is this so? How long has she had them? Who constituted them her Council? Has she followed their advice? Has her walks been regulated by them? Bad Council do you say! Some old fogies of '76 concluded that, whenever a government became destructive of, or failed to effectuate the objects of its creation, it is the privilege, nay the duty of that people to change the form, or abolish altogether, and establish a new one, suited to their wants. Does the government of Jacksonville fail to effectuate the objects of its creation?

The writer, by your permission, will pursue this subject still further.

In the mean time, should be pleased to hear from you, on the subject, and to learn the age of the town, and anything

Stonewall Institute.

We invite attention to the advertisement, giving notice of the commencement of the next session of this Institution. We copy the following notice from the Selma Times and Messenger, we hartily enderse, and would say more if at all necessary. We can say from a personal acquaintance with Rev. Mr. Connerly, and his eminent qualifications and abilities, that persons who desire to send their sons to a distance to school, could not do better than send shem to Stonewall Institute.

The Stonewall Institute.—The Close of the Session.

A two hours' drive, on Thursday, over a fine road, running beyond Summerfield, over a rolling, almost broken, country, took us to Stonewall Institute a school already famous.

There it stands, in the woods, yet almost a town of .itself-a community without shops; or bar-100ms, or gambling houses, or any of the vices, or even the temptations to vice, peculiar to towns-a community of young men, devoted to intellectual, pursuits, in training for the great battle of life.

This school was founded by Mr. Connerly in 1865 on the lidea that young men isolated almost for the time being from the world would be enabled to concentrate their minds on the business of acquiring an education, and consequently, would make a more rapid advancement in their studies, while, at the same time, their morals and habits would be fixed for life under the care corrupting influences.

With these ideas in view, Mr. Connerly creeted the necessary buildings, and Blair. A full attendance is ear- and opened his school, at a point five nestly requested. midst of hills which are almost mountains, where the water is good, the air s pure, and malarious disease are unknown; and here he has since labored with characteristic energy and zeal and ability, not so much for a temporary please come prepared to make the usual success, as to lay broad and deep the foundations of an enduring reputation and of a school whose name shall in future years whereever it is mentioned carry with it the idea of excellence.

Here he has gathered around him good boys, devoted to them all his time and all his ability as a teacher labored with them in the school room and cut of it, watched with paternal solicitude over their morals, cared for their physical wants with auxious difigence, and, while storing their memory with useful knowledge, trained their minds to habits of thinking and reasoning on all the affairs of life

The course of instruction at Stonewall is eminently practical; and while nothing is neglected, the mathematics, the English language, the power of expressing thoughts or conveying knowl-, have received especial idons of business attention. Hence composition and declamation, so much neglected in our schools, and book keeping and pen manship still more neglected, form important features in this school.

The examination of the classes had been concluded on the preceding days. and Thursday was devoted wholly to declamations and orations The "little ones" had spoken their pieces before we reached Stonewall, but we were in time for the orations of the more advanced pupils, whose names and subjects we give, viz:-

R. McFadden, Axes, E. Cade, Porcry; W. Stallworth, Men of Business; E. Davidson, Love of Liberty; J. Hollis, Character; F. Bates, Fame; W. Randall, Love of Truth; Rob't Ware, Orology; David Smith. No Excellence Without Labor; W. Phillips, Our Country; J. Stansell, High Aims; J. Me-Crow, "How Are the Mighty Fallen;" James Moore, "Labor Omnia Vincit;" Henry Hybart, Man the Architect of His Own Fortune; Knox Lee, The Destiny of the South; W. S. Neal, Something New; W. L. Sink, Valedictory.

We pay no constrained compliment to these your gentlemen when we say, that in the matter of the orations and in the manner of delivery these exercises were of a high order-that the excellence was so general that we cannot particularize our praise without conscious injustice to those not mentioned. The self-possession, the ease, the dignity, and the manliness of the speakers were noticed by all; and the orations were less florid, and the delivery, in almost every case, less declamatory and artificial, more matured, better adapted our flag to victory.

The partial failure of the cutton crop of '67, and the low prices at which planters sold, left thousands without the ability to educate their children; but the prospect is more favorable now, and it is to be honed that this fall every young man in the country will till his proper place in the classes of some institution of his barbarous nature to such an extent, years to come will be educated mind.

THE PLATFORM.

OF THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PAR-TY.

The Democratic party, in National rust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people; standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government and the guarantee of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in Constitutional Conventions assembled and never to be renewed or rengitated, do with the retuan of peace, demand,

1. Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution and civil government of the American people.

All money drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, should be honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide, that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and justice be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

·4. Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value including Government bonds and other public securities.

5. One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

6. Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the removal of the freedmen's bureau, and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and the discontinuance of inquisitorial boards for assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the barden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, and the credit of the Government and the curracy made good; the repeal of all enactments for controlling the State militia into National forces in time of peac; a turiff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufacturers, and as will, without impairing the revedge with the pen or the toughe, and enue, impose the least burden upon the people and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the

Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from offices, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to, and the independence of the Executive and Judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may

It has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the Supreme Judicial tribunal and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies, mercly because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charge preferred against the President.

Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of debt created during the war.

It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own cabinet.

Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President we will meet as a subject and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Con-

And we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjugation to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and any attempt by Gongress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with this exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and, if sanctioned by the people, will subvert our form of Government, and can only end in a single centralized, consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of equal States.

That we regard the reconstruction acts of Congress, so-called, as usurpations, unconstitutional, revolutionary end void, and that our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guaran ees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed widely among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants at the minimum price as established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed, necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands and not the lands themselves should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, in exercising the nower of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress on the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and on behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard.

Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all the conservative element and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of epinion, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people, and that: to all such, to whatever party they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right hand of fellowship, and hail all such co-operating with us as friends and brothers.

Gen. Meir on the Situation. Loyal Views Fearlessly Expressed. How a Brave Man would Save the

The following letter from Gen. Frank P. Blair, the democratic candidate for Vice. President, was published in the New York papers on the morning of the 3d inst :

WASHINGTON, June 30. Col Jas. O. Broadhead.

DEAR COLONEL: In reply to your inquiries, I beg leave to say that I leave to you to determine, on consultation with my friends from Missouri, whether my name shall be presented to the Democratic Convention, and to submit the following, as what I consider the real and only issue in this contest :

The reconstruction policy of the Radicals will be complete before the next election; the States, so long excluded, will have been admitted; negro suffrage established and the carpet-baggers installed in their seats in both branches of Congress. There is no possibility of changing the political character of the Senate, even if the Democrats should elect their President and a majority of the popular branch of Congress. We cannot, therefore, undo the Radical plan of reconstruction by Congressional action; the Senate will continue a bar to its repeal... Must we submit to it? How can it be overthrown? It can only by the authority of the Executive, who is sworn to maintain the Constitution, and whe will fail to do his duty if he allows the Constitution to perish under a series of Congressional enactments which, are in palpable violation of its fundamental principles.

If the President elected by the Democracy enforces or permits others to enforce these reconstruction acts, the Radicals, by the accession of twenty spuraious Senators and afty Representatives will control both branches of Congress, and his administration will be as powerless as the present one of Mr.

Johnson...
There is but one way to restore the Government and the Constitution, and that it is for the President elect to declare these acts null and void, compel the army to undo its usurpations at the South, disperse the carpet-bag State governments, allow the white people to reorganize their own governments and elect Senators and Representatives. The House of Representatives will contain a majority of democrats from the North, and they will admit the Representatives elected by the white people of the South, and with the co operation of the President it will not be difficult to compel the Senate to submit once more to the obligations of the Constitution. It will not be able to withstand the public judgment, if distinctly inworked and clearly expressed, on this fundamental issue, and it is the sure way to avoid all future strife to put this issue plainly to the country.

I repeat that this real and only question which we should allow to control us: Shall we submit to the usurpations by which the Government has been overthrown, or shall we exert ourselves for its full and complete restoration. It is idle to talk os bonds, greenbacks, bold, the public faith and the public credit. What can a democratic President do in regard to any of these, with hellowtwoollad a Congress in both branche by the carpet-baggers and their allies? He will be powerless to stop the sup-plies by which idle negroes are organized into political clubs-by which an army is maintained to protect these vagabonds in their outrages upon the ballot. These, and things like these, cat up the revenues and resources of the Hoverament and destroy its credit. make the difference between gold and greenbacks. We must restore the Constitution before we can restore the finances, and to do this we must have a President who will execute the will of the people by trampling into the dust the usurpations of Congress, known as the Reconstruction acts. I wish to stand before the Convention upon this issue. but it is one which embraces everything else that is of value in its large and comprehensive results. It is the one thing that includes all that is worth a contest, and without it there is nothing that gives dignity, honor, or value to the struggle. Your friend, FRANK P. BLAIR.

Victory! Victory!!

The Vicksburg Herald is enthusiastic over the great Democratic triumph in that State. It holds forth in this glowing strain:

Glorious, gallant Mississippi has crushed the dragon of Radicalism. Proudly she can proclaim that, undismayed; she went gallantly into the contest, and came forth victor. An exultant and presumptuous horde of greedy adventurers proclaimed that they could ride rough-shod over every right of our citizens, amongst whom a pauper of freemen, and with arrogance and presumption threw down the gauntlet-Gallant Mississippi accepted the gage, and meeting the vain tyrant, o verthrew and crushed him in battle. Hang your heads in shame, ye. vile pilferers and plunderers, for your villainy has been fastened upon you, and defeat, full and day, Infamy is atamped upon your minous defeat; but Gen. McDowell de-brows. Time cannot remove the hatred which your crimes and vices have ducted; and there does not seem to have engendered. Go down and grovel in been a serious disturbance or difficulty the dust you are abborrent to the sight worthy of note in the State during the reach us of overwhelming majorities .- | Weights and Measures as Recogniz-It is no longer a question of doubt; it is clearly established to the mind of the most sanguine and hopeful among the Radicals that the Constitution has been terribly defeated. The mighty East, with her great energy, patriotism and industry, has piled up a very mountain of votes against the Constitution. Mississippi has spoken in thunder tones, and Radicalism is dead forever in the State—no chance to ever reestablish a foothold again.

Matters at Washington.

The Radical Game-What Gen. Meaule is Doing in Georgia-Fraud, Conspiracy and Treason.

Special Dispatch to the Mont. Advertiser.] WASHINGTON, July 11, 1868.

The game of the radicals is a deep and dangerous one, and looks to noth ing more nor less than a restoration of State and National Governments by daring radical outrage. Joe Brown and Gen. Meade, thinking, when the Legislature met, that the radicals had a majority only required members of the Senate and House to take the oath required by the new Constitution of Georgia. Soon after the election, General Meade appointed a committee to investigate all contests and to report on the eligibility of candidates. Gen. Mende issued an order and named as duly elected and entitled to their seats the members who went forward and qualifiel at the assembling of the Legisla ture. Everything seemed promising then, but a few votes developed the fact that the democrats controlled the House. Then Bullock, Brown and Meade set their heads to work, and the result is that enough democrats, in the face of Meade's order, declaring them elected, are to be turned out, in order that the 14th amendment way be ratified and Joe Brown and the Augusta perjurer, Foster Blodgett, be elected to the United States Senate. This is the game that is being played The only advice we can give the Georgia democrats is to retain their seats and never yield them except at the point of the bayonet. Let Gen. Meade send his soldiers into the Georgia Legislature and turn men already declared entitled to their seats out of them, in order to secure a radical majority, and it will make for Seymour a quarter of a millien of votes. The scheme of revolution contemplates another grander outrage, which if consummated may involve the nation in war. Thad Stevens has introduced additional articles of impeachment and for the present they are quietly resting for the Southern bogus congressmen to all get in their seats. As soon as about 15 additional Senators and 40 members are sworn in, the new articles are to be hurried through and the President again put on trial This time he is to be convicted, and then by radical legislation, his place is to be usurped by some one who will yield it to Grant, even if Seymour is fairly elected.

This is the plan by which the Grant faction hope in spite of the popular will to retain power and to outrage public opinion. The day they undertake it, there will be such a storm as has seldom nassed over any country.

The democrats here understand their deep laid plan, and will never consent to the inauguration of Grant unless he is fairly elected. This you may rely on. The Georgia democratic members were all relieved by the bill which relieved Brown .- Bulloct & Co., of their political disabilities, from all persons, who were elected to any position who have not publicly declined to accept -

Let the Georgia Democrats act on this and "Stick." They will be sustained by the democrats of the North. Grant and the Jews.

The following from the Warwick (Ind.) Herald, a Republican paper dyed in the wool, shows in what estimation GRANT's party holds the Israelites -It says:

"GRANT VS JEWDOM. "The Evansville Courier is trying to make capital against General Grant because he would not let Jewish armvthieves and blockade-runners carry on their unlawful trafficing unmolested .-The Jews, as a class are distinguished pre eminently above all other people for their characteristic dishonesty and theying propensities. It is a part of their faith to pray upon and rob Christians. After having violated every military law pertaining to trade in the Department of Tannessee, during the war, General Grant banished them from the Department, and forbid them ever returning to it. We say good " The above is bold language to be used towards an industrious, enterprising class is not to be found.

Before the close of the campaign the Republicans will be on their kness, begging the votes of these people. Dayton Ledger.

There no longer appears any reason to doubt that the constitution is defeatcrimes consign your and never again to the old "stop thief" cry of "fraud" to cover the old "stop thief" cry of "fraud" the old "stop thief" cry of "fraud" canvass or while the votes were being

For the Republican.

Memory. The following lines are affectionately dedicated to Miss LAURA M. PORTER. How sweet to muse at the close of day,
In the twilight dim at even,
Of the friends we love, that have gone before,
To their far off homes in heaven.

We know they are there, yet their voices come To us as in days of yore, Their loving eyes, and joyous smiles, We see again once more.

And far removed from the busy world, We dwell with them awhile, Nor care nor thought of the coming days,

Can from them our hearts beguile. Memory, fond memory, in a world like this, With so much of sorrow and pain, Is a spot ever green in the desert wild, Where we meet our lost loved ones again.

Jackeonville, Alu. July, 6th, 1869. Noble Sentiments.

On Tuesday last the Soldiers and Sailors Conventien, in answer to an invitation to attend the Democratic Convention, sent in the following address:

"Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Convention-We are instructed by the unanimous vote of the Convention of Union soldiers and silors now in session at Cooper Institute, to return to you our thanks for extending to us the privileges on the floor of your Convention. The objects for which we are assembled, are clearly set forth in the address of our presiding officer.

Our Convention is composed of two thousand delegates, elected to present every State and Territory in the Union, who have served in the Union army and navy, every one of whom believes that in co-operating at this time with the Conservative party of the country, he is still engaged in the same cause for which he risked his life during the war, viz:-To preserve the Union and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution.

We believe that the crimes now being perpetrated in the name of Republicanism and loyalty, are not less alarming than were those committed by the armed foes of the Government during the war. The party now in power has destroyed the equality of the States, has forced Southern States to submit to have their constitution and laws framed by ignorant negroes, just released from sevitude, while at the North it has denied the negco, although comparatively educated, the right of suffrage.

It has attempted to influence the highest tribunal of the land by calling meetings of excited partisans to condemn all members of the court who might refuse to act in accordance with their dictation, while all the leadings journalists of the party, since the close of the impeachment trial, have denounced and vilified, in the most unmeasured terms, the once chosen leaders of their own party, going so far, in some instances, as to threaten personal violence, and for no other reason than that they were unwilling to perjure themselves at the behest of party.

It has freely removed political disabilities from men of the South, who before and during the war, were the most violent, malignant rebels, but have since become the sycophants of the party in power, while it persecutes those in the same localities who have always been true to the Union, but are unwilling to be ruled by their recently emancipated slaves.

At the North it has denied official positions to hundreds of the veterans of the war, most of whom are disabled by wounds received in battle, while it has foisted into place partisans of its own, having no claims on the Government. many of whom, fortunately for the country, have during the past few months, become inmates of our penitentiaries.

It has placed the General of the armics beyond the control of the President of the United States, to whom the Federal Constitution makes him subordinate; has nominated him for the Prosidency, and the events of the last four months indicate that, by the use of the army under his supreme control, there is a determination to cause the electoral votes of the Southern Slates to be east for himself through force and fraud.

We solemuly declare our convictions, that the free institutions of the country have nover been in greater joopardy than at this time, and we look to the deliberations of the Democratic party now assembled in convention, with the deepest anxiety, feeling that in its action depends the future prosperity of our country. We earnestly trust and believe that no devotion to men or adherence to past issues will be permitted to endanger the success of the great party to wich the country now looks with anxious eye, for permanent peace and the perpetuity of our institutions. the address three cheers were given for the soldiers and sailors, and calls were made for Thomas Ewing, jr., of Obio, who was introduced to the Convention and was greeted by a round of applause Mr. Ewing said: "Gentlemen of the Convention-If it were appropriate for me it would be impossible, for lack of voice, to express to this Convention the thankfulness which I and the members of the Committee feel for the cuthusiastic manner of this reception -We feel that the members of the two conventions, however separate their paths may have been in the past, will march henceforth in one line. Hard on Betts.

The father of George Betts, one of the Columbus prisoners, now turned state's evidence, came down from Atlanta yesterday, and confirms the rumor we mentioned in Sunday's paper, in regard to Betts. The father of George says that his son has been suborned. and that he will swear falsely on the trial now progressing in Atlanta. He The most certain and effectual cure for all forms of Diarrhoa, Nausca and Vemiting, says further that his wife and two of George's sisters will swear positively that George was at home on the night etc. It is exceeding pleasant, cools and that George was at home on the night etc. of the assassination and that he did not leave there and it is impossible that he ration, contains no kino, catecha galls, tanleave there, and it is impossible that he knows anything of the murder as an eye-witness.

The father further states that his son is a worthless vagabond, whom he would not believe on oath, and that all his nequaintances entertain the same opinion of him. He is satisfied that George will be convicted of perjury, in the matter, and that his own festimony will do it. As will be seen by the testimony of Sergeant Marshall, his statements are wholly unreliable, as Mr. Stephens made him tell two or three different then, tales about the difficulty he had with Ashburn, and all the time admits that he was so drunk he did not know what passed between them.

And these are the witness that are to convict the prisoners!-Macon Tel.

Southern Preparations NOMPRISE a class of pure and select OMPRISE a class of pure and select Family Medicines, prepared from pure brugs, by a class of experienced Southers Physicians, specially for the diseases incident to a Southern locality.

They and not secret nor patent mixtures, and are recommended to be used in lieu of those prepared by our Northern triends, who know but little about Southern treatment. Ours is the only class of Family Medicines ever offered to the public which were prepared by the Medical Profession.

FEMALES OF THE SOUTH.

Diseases peculiar to your sex, incident to all localities, called from the passing breeze that fans you with its perfumed breath, or snatched from some pendant dew-drop, are to you a constant and abiding trouble. Whether a constant and abiding trouble. Whether an inhabitant of city or country, hill or dale, pulace or hovel, disease rankles and preys upon your vitals. Gloom and despair are your constant companions. Your pale and glastly countenance, your feeble and tottering walk, your lifeless eye, your feeble and tottering walk, your pulpilating heart, your dejected brow, all tell of that disease which is gradually and steadily making inroads upon your declining system.

The Sunshine of Hope

ENGLISH FAMALE BITTERS

Is the only combination that actually and positively arouses and restores the womb to positively arouses and restores the wome to its natural healthy condition. It removes all unnatural obstructions, relieves painful or suppressed Menstruction, cures Leucorrhoa or Whites, Falling of the Womb, Hysterics, Chlorisis, Palpitation, Nervousness, Swin-ming and Giddiness of the Head, Melancholy, Placerting, and Irritation of the Womb, De-Illegration and Irritation of the Womb, De rangements of the Kidneys and Bladder, and all diseases that are peculiar to the female sex -afflicting old or young, married or single. Send and get one Bottle, it will do you good.

YOUR LIFE BLOOD

Must be changed in order to be relieved of that troublesome class of diseases requiring pure blood. DROMGOOLE & CO.'S

Constitutional Monarch

Is recognized by the Medical Profession as the BEST and most CERTAIN Blood Purifier now before the public, and why? Simply because it is composed of the best medicines for that purpose, viz: Stillingia, Yellow Dock, Sarsaparilla, Burdock, and Iodide of Potash. For Scrofula, Cutaneous Eruptions, Skin Diseases, Gout, Rheumatism, Glandular Tumor, and Swellings, old Ulcers and Sores, Constitutional Derangements, etc., it acts like

Personal Explanation .- Many persons do not understand what is meant by the "Great Southern Preparations." Let us explain .-At Memphis, three experienced Southern Physicians, one of Memphis, one from Mississippi and the other from Louisiana, united their mental powers, their money and their experience, for the purpose of preparing for the Southern people a class of reliable Family Medicines, to be used in lieu of the many that are from those who know but little of our diseases, and they are called the "Great Southern Preparations," being eighteen or twenty in number. They are neither secrets ourpatents.

The Radical Steam Torture Box at

When we republished, a few days since, from the Washington National Intelligencer, a statement that Instruments of Torture had been applied, in Fort Pulaski, to the government witnesses in the Ashburnce case, we did it entirely upon the responsibility of that paper, and whith an honest incredulity of the whole thing.
It seemed to us impossible of belief that Torture should be applied to witnesses in legal or military investigation under the authority of the United States Government, in this 19th Century of the Christian era. But incredible as this horrid stigma upon civilization, Christianity and republicanism may appear, we are compelled to believe it, and that the dungeons of Fort Pulaski have reverberated with the half stifled groans end screams of victims tortured by a contrivance brought there for the purpose; in order "to make them tell the truth," or, in other words, give testimony as was desired by the prosecutors.

In conversation with one of the most eminent citizens of Macon yesterday, he assured us that General Meade explained to him in Atlanta, week before last, the whole modus operandi of this instrument of torture. Meade described it as a box sufficiently capacious to admit the victim, and then arranged for compression by screws, by which a force could be brought upon the prisoner sufficient to "squeeze the breath out of guish of suffocation This machine was applied to three of the witnesses-Betts Marshal and a negro, with entire efficacy-the negro gave in, in a moment, and cried out that he would swear to anything if they would only let him out of that box.

FOR PRESIDENT, HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR, OF MISSOURI.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS .- We publish this week, from the Montgomery Mail and Advertiser, extracts from the proceedings of a public character, of the Legislature now in session; not because we believe it a legal and constitutional body, but because we know our readers have a curiosity to see what it is doing, composed as it is of thirty negroes, a number of carpet-baggers from Maine, Michigan, Towa, and the northwest, and a sprinkling of native scalawags. They have voted themselves eight dollars a day, and 40 cents per mile mileage, more than double the amount with which our old democratic legislators were content, and seem very anxiously devising means to get their pay, having passed resolutions prohibiting the Treasurer from paying out money on any account, even withholding the school fund from teachers, already earned.

If they succeed in devising means to get their pay, they will no doubt continue in session a good while, having scarcely yet mentioned the important subjects of taxation, the new complicated school and malitia systems, the latter of which was designed to take the place of U. S. soldiers in keeping the people in subjection and depriving them of the right to vote except for Radicals.

This Legislature is not only the creature of an unconstitutional law of a Rump Congress, but the new State constitution under which they claim to act, was fairly and squarely defeated under the well defined terms of that law.

Examination of Students of Jacksonville Female Academy.

'We were present during a considerable portion of the time occupied on Wednesday and Thursday last in the examination of the pupils of the Female Academy of this place, of which Rev. D. F. Smith is Principal and Miss Mary A. Turnley, Assistant.

The students of the various classes were submitted to a thorough examination, and acquitted themselves in a manner highly creditable to both classes and teachers. The examination was attended throughout by a large and interested audience, among whom we were pleased to notice some experienced Educators from a distance-Rev. Jno. Massey, Summerfied, Ala., Rev. Mr McVoy, Profs. Borden and Dodson, of Oxford, Mr. J. A. Fleming, School Supt. for this County: Also Miss Broyles and Miss Fullenwider, experienced and suc cessful female teachers.

At the close of the exercises, by request of the Principal and call of the audience, Rev Messrs. Massey and Me-Voy delivered brief, but foreible and appropriate addresses, in the course of which they both highly complimented and eulogized some of the more advanced classes; and manifested their full understanding and appreciation of the advantages of this locality for schools of the highest order.

Altogether, it was manifest that a deeper interest has been awakened in our community on the important subject of education; and now that the Academy has been enlarged, so as to accommodate from 125 to 150, it is hoped that the number will be doubled for the next session. Remember, that no better or enduring investment can be made for children or wards.

At the close, Mr. Smith announced the time of the commencement of the next session, and the employment of Miss Fullenwider as Assistant.

RE Senator Summer of Massachusetts, has lately written letters to his political allies in the South, urging them to procure the election of a negro to the United States Senate. Why does he not resign his own seat and let negro-loving Massachusetts fill the vacancy? We have no doubt it would be much more honorably filled, 12th of May, the work was visited by the President of the Road, Mr Delane, and other gentlemen from New York, at which time the rock was fully exposed, and the opinion was expressed that four or five months would be required to enable the track to be laid through the cut, and it was then that Mr. Cary said he would have a hole through wide enough for the track in six weeks, which promise he kept to a day. In a little over two months, he has removed about 6000 yards of rock from a through cut, about 43 feet deep, without a single acmuch of the work seemed to us to be dangerous to both.

EmMr. Coon of Iowa, Sepator in the present Congressional Legislature of Alabama, avowed openly in a debate on the bill to remove political disabilities, that he was opposed to removing disabilities from any but those who would vote the Radical ticket for Grant and Colfax This exhibition of meanness and proscription on his part, makes his name still more "suggestive of negroes and dogs" as stated by one of the Montgomery papers during his occupation of a seat in the Convention. Figuratively speaking, we think this Coon had better go back to the hollow log in Iowa that he came from.

THE SNAKE KILLED. - Information of a reliable character reached the city, yesterday, of the certain destruction of of the big snake which has been the source of so much fear and fun in the neighborhood of Triune. He was discovered on Monday last by a couple of young men who were out hunting him-They were armed with muskets, and as soon as they got a glimpse of the monster, they commenced a lively attack on his vitality. It was necessary to shoot him eight or ten times before he was finally dispatched. A note from a friend describing the occurrence says it is certaiuly the largest one ever seen in this country, being twenty-nine and a half feet in length by actual measurement. The youg men who killed him are preparing the body for exhibition, and bring it here in order to complete the preparation.—Nashville Gazzette.

Well, 1st. It is the business of the corporation to prevent and remove nuisances. Have the "corporate authori ties "managed," wisely, discreetly and successfully, as they are empowered to do in such manner as their duty, and the interests of the corporation demand? What nuisance have they removed?

What preparations or efforts are being made for the removal of any? How many remain un-removed, as standing, living, burning monuments of shame and disgrace, and festering sores upon the moral status of the corporation; dangerous to the safety of private property; and some liable at any mo-

The corporate authorities, under the charter, have the power to do these things. The charter makes it their duty, their oath of office ought to bind them to do so. The power to do this being conferred upon them, none others can do so. Why is this not done?

The white citizens, headed by the Sheriff and Bureau Agent, prevented the execution, and attempted to suppress the mob, which resulted in a tight, in which 10 or 12 negroes were Killed. The next day the number had increased on both sides, and skirmishing ensued during the day, in which about 25 were killed. A small body of troops arrived late last evening, and dispersed the rioters, killing three negroes The negroes numbering from 300 to 500, had fortified themselves and refused to surrender until the troops dispersed them. Their total loss is 50 or 60. The difficulty is said to have arisen from a suspicion among the negroes that Holiday had helped to hang a loyal leaguer, who was then missing, but who has since turned up well and sound.

TERSELY STATED .- "Mack" of the Cincinnati Enquirer says the contest that commenced on Thursday last, with Gov. Seymour's nomination, is between civil law and military despotism as to the people; between venality and principle as to parties; and between bruins works and bonfires were the order of and buttons as to candidates.

Letter Endorsing Governor Semour-

The following private letter from Mr Pendleton was addressed to Washington McLean, of the Ohio delegation, before that delegation left Ohio, and was handed to John A Greene, Jr. on their arrival in New York:

CINCINNATI, June 25, 1868. My Dear Sir: You left my office this morning before I was aware of it. 1 seek you at home, but you are not there, I must say what I want by note. As soon as you go to New York see Governor Seymour. You know well what was my feeling before and after I heard from him last fall. He is to day the foremost man in our party in the United States. His ability, cultivation, and experience, put him at the head of our statesmen. He commands my entire considence. I would rather trust him than myself with the delicate duties of the next four years. You know I am sincere. Make him feel this, and that night. he can rely on me and my friends. I have a natural pride, an honest pride, I believe in the good-will of my countrymen; but you better than any one else, know that it is neither egotistical nor overruling, and that I am really anxious to give up the nomination to any body who can get one single vote more than myself. Express all this frankly to the Governor, but delicately, and let him understand my views of men and measures as I have frequently given them to you. Good bye. God bless you.

Yours truly, George H. Pendleton. To WASHINGTON McLEAN, Esq.

"The only objection," says the New Orleans Times, "against Gen. Hancock among the delegates to the Democratic Convention lay in the fact that the Radmittee on the bill regulating executive | icals had nominated a soldier of the highest rank in the country, without creating the least enthusiasm among the people, and it was, therefore, regarded as not only politic but the duty of the Democratic party to place in nomination a statesman of the first eminence. The complimentary vote received by Gen. Hancock shows that he was, without doubt, the mast universally popular man mentioned. His services in the cause of constitutional liberty have not been and cannot be lost sight of, and a brilliant destiny is yet in store for him .-If the Radical plots, already foreshadowed by Thad. Stevens, are put in operation, Gen. Hancock may yet prove the Bolivar of the Republic. The selection of Seymour is no reflection upon Hancock.

THE COST OF A CONSTITUTION. -The bogus constitution of Mississippi, which no doubt has been rejected by both the whites and the blacks, is the result of a convention session of 133 days, at ments of $204,812 54. The sung little sum of $37,321 40 has been paid to four Radical papers for publishing the proceedings as advertising matter and for some printing during the session. The sum of $23,000 was charged for printing 20,000 copies of the constitution, a small and badly gotten up pamphlet of 48 pages. A New Orleans house proposed to do the job for $730, but fai'ed to get it. But the Chicago Congressional Radical reconstruction, nevertheless .- N. Y. Express.

A Bad Nomination! No Enthusiasm!

The radical papers affect to think that the nomination of Sermour and Blair is a weak one. They affect to believe the Convention did not put a strong in fact, anybody but SEYMOUR, who is so unpopular that he will not press

Grant closely! The New York Times, radical, of the 10th inst., told its readers, in a dozen different paragraphs, that the nominations had fallen still born -that they excited no enthusiasm-that the democracy everywhere were dissatisfied with them! As evidence of all this, the Times of that morning contained, in a single column, the following telegraphic dispatches: - Selma Mess.

PHILADELPHIA, Thursday July 9. The nomination of Seymour was received here this evening. A salute of one hundred guns is to be fired in Independence Square.

Worcester, Mass., July 9 A salute of one hundred guns was fired in this city, this afternoon, in honor of the nomination of Seymour

Augusta, Ga., Thursday, July 9 A grand mass meeting of the Lemocracy was held to-night in honor of the nomination of Seymour.

RICHMOND, Va., Thursday, July 9. The Conservatives will hold a meeting at the Theatre Saturday night to ratify the New York nominations.

BALTIMORE. Md., Thursday July 9. The nomination of Seymour and Blair is received here with the greatest enthusiasm.

Acousta, G2 , Thursday, July 9. The nomination of Seymour was received here with enthusiasm. There will be a grand demonstration to-morrow

ST Louis, Thursday, July 9. A very large Democratic meeting was held in the Court House to-night, to ratify the nomination of Seymour and Blair.

Louisvitte, Thursday, July 9. The Democratic newspaper offices all displayed the National flag upon the announcement of the nomination of Ho-RATIO SEYMOUR to the Presidency tonight. Further demonstrations of endorsement were made.

Mempuis, Tenn, Thursday, July 9. The nomination of SEYMOUR and BLAIR was received with the wildest enthusiasm. The ratification meeting to-night, after 3 o'clock; was the largest assemblage ever congregated here since IS61.

Syracuse, Thursday, July 9. The Democracy of the city ratified the nomination of Seymour and Blair, this evening, by the firing of one hundred guns, a procession with music, and addresses by prominent citizens from the balcony of the Syracuse House .-Much enthusiasm was manifested.

Buffalo, Thursday, July 9.

The nominations of the Democratic Convention were received with wild enthusiasm. A salute of 100 guns was fired, and prominent democrats were serenaded.

All these demonstrations were on the very evening the nomination was made -impromptu demonstrations by the neonle. Gen. Grant has been a candidate two months; and all the demonstrations in his behalf to this time, do not equal, in number or magnitude, those reported to a single paper in behalf of Seymour on the very day of his nomination! What a pity the action of the Convention doesn't suit the radicals!

OBITUARY.

Died in Jacksonville, Ala. on 20th inst, Mrs. Amy, consort of Dr J. C. Francis, aged 56 years, 9 mo. and 7 days.

In the blooming spring-time of early maidenhood she verified the precious promises made by our loving Saviour to the young, and ere she had attained her fifteenth year, enrolled her name on the platform rejoices over the success of class-book of the M. E. Church-dedicated her heart and life to her God. No wayward wanderings from the "straight M. R. Boggs. and narrow way," which her young feet so early sought, retarded her spiritual progress, but ever holding fast to the profession of her faith and walking worthy of the vocation wherewith she was called," her upward "pathway grew brighter and brighter unto the perfect that it has fallen like a wet blanket up- | day." No dark misgivings or timorous doubts, which so frequently overshadow the christian, ever cast their gloom over the sunshine of her religious experiences, but in all the events of life, to her eye of faith the love and grace of her Heavenly Father were clearly and brightly manifested. Conspicuous among the virtues which adorned her character was that ornament so lovely in woman, a "meek and quiet spirit, which, in the sight of God is of great price." This patient gentleness united with remarkable energy, decision and fortitude gave her an influence, none the less potent because so quietly exerted. Softly and unobtrusively she moved in the station wherein she was p'aced, faithfully discharging her high and responsible duties as wife, mother and friend, until called to rest from her labors and enjoy the glories of a blissful immortality. Keen indeed must be the pangs that rend the heart of the bereaved husband by whose side she had journeyed wellnigh 36 years; and sorrowful must be the tears of those sons and daughters that weep the loss of such a mother; but these afflicted ones "mourn not as those without hope," and even as they stand beside the tomb the voice of the Comforter whispers, "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord, yea henceforth saith the Spirit that they rest from their labors; yea and their works do follow them:

'Life's duty done, as sinks the clay, Light from its load the spirit flies, While heaven and earth combine to say How blessed the righteous when she

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhoad, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Importance of Marriage etc., ale capacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also Consumption, Epilepsy, and Firs, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extrava-rance. Mr Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cts.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse man be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address

"LOVE THY NEIGHBOR."

BY MRS. BETTIE KEYES HUNTER.

If we did but prize the flowers That along our pathway grow, Nor would waste so many hours Seeking for the thorns below; If we strove to help each other Ever upward on the way, Nor would holy feelings smother 'Neath the ashes of decay;

If we did not judge so blindly What we do not understand: If our words were spoken kindly; Lent we all a friendly hand— Would there be so much of sorrow Crowded in life's narrow time? Would not earth some brightness borrow From the glory-lighted clime?

There are tear-washed, pallid faces Peering out upon the night; There are many gloomy places
To which love would bring the light.
Shall we leave them wan and weary?
When a little word or deed Might some boson make lees dreary,
If it kindly come in need?

Oh! there is a holy pleasure
Welling up from fountains pure;
And it yields a precious treasure,
Which we all may here secure:— 'Tis in living for each other, Thinking less of self and gain, Seeing in each one a brother Whom we find in want and pain.

Wilburn Waters is the name of a remarkable man, known as the hermit of White Top, Va, and the greatest hunter of the age. He is now fifty five years of age, and during his hermit life has killed 106 bears, 88 wolves, more than 400 deer, and number of wildcats. or catamounts, having killed some 20 of the latter during the last year.

6. Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the resecure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and the discontinuance of inquisitorial boards for assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, and the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for controlling the State militia into National forces in time of peace; a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufacturers. and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon the people and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparallelled oppression and tyrranny which have marked its career, after the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both honses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution.

It has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union. it has so far as in its power dissolved it. and subjected ten States in time of peace to military despotism and negro supremacy

It has nullified there the right of trial It has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty. It has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press. It has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and seeret Star Chamber inquisitions, for constitutional tribunals.

It has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from search aud seizures.

It has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters, without any specification or notice or affidavit, as required by the organic law.

It has converted the American Capitolinto a bastile.

It has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarch of Europe would now dare to resort.

It has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the Supreme Judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the The Democratic party, in National learned Chief Justice has been subject-convention assembled, reposing its ed to the most atrocious calumnies, trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people; his high office to the support of the false and partisan charge preferred against

It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own cabinet.

Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President we will meet as a subject and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Con-

And we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjugation to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regula-ted, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectivement, and where the obligations of the ly, and any attempt by Gongress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with this exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and, if sanctioned by the people, will subvert our form of Government, and can only end in a single centralized, consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of equal States.

That we regard the reconstruction acts of Congress, so-called, as usurpations, unconstitutional, revolutionary end void, and that our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and moval of the freedmen's bureau, and all | determined foe, must ever be gratefully political instrumentalities designed to remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed widely among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants at the minimum price as established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed, necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands and not the lands themselves should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, in chereising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress on the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and on behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard.

Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all the conservative element and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of opinion, to unite with us
